Inclusive Participation & Accommodation Policy

Springer's, LLC is committed to providing an inclusive, supportive environment for all children. We comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and all applicable state regulations. Each child's needs are unique, and we follow an individualized process to determine whether accommodations can be safely and reasonably provided.

1. Requesting an Accommodation

Parents or guardians requesting accommodations for their child must:

- Submit the accommodation request in writing.
- Provide relevant medical, behavioral, or communication information.
- Participate in a meeting with program leadership to discuss the child's needs.
- Review and agree to any applicable safety plans.

2. Reasonable Accommodations We May Provide

We will provide accommodations that are considered reasonable and do not compromise program integrity or safety, such as:

- Modified communication or visual supports
- Step-by-step activity modeling
- Extra time for transitions
- Minor adjustments to activities
- Buddy systems
- Collaboration with parents or specialists

3. Accommodations That May Be Declined

These may be declined if they:

- Create safety risks

_____ School Year

Gym Release Form

- Require one-on-one staffing beyond what the program can provide
- Require specialized medical care
- Fundamentally alter the program
- Prevent staff from supervising safely
- Exceed the reasonable capacity of the program

4. Participation Decisions

If an accommodation is unsafe, infeasible, or fundamentally alters the program, the program may be unable to provide it. Alternatives may include:

- Adjusted class placement
- Parent-provided support (if appropriate)
- Referral to another program

5. Safety Priority

All decisions consider:

- Child and staff safety
- Program structure
- Ratios
- Facility limitations
- Regulations

6. Documentation

All accommodation requests and decisions will be documented.

7. Non-Discrimination Statement

We do not discriminate on the basis of disability. Each request is evaluated individually for safety, feasibility, and reasonableness.
